

Qader Family Scholarship

Application for Academic Year 2019-20

This scholarship is funded by the Qader Family for children of new converts to Islam. The only requirement to apply is that at least one of the student's parents must be a new convert to Islam. This scholarship is available to students entering grades K-8 and is based on academic excellence. You do not have to be a current GIS family to apply. It may cover the entire year's tuition or be divided among several winners. The deadline to apply is March 29, 2019.
